Qualifications & Standards for Participation in BOMA Greater Minneapolis

Professional Members are defined as those who are trained, experienced or educated in professions which are recognized to have involvement in the real estate industry, such as architects, appraisers, leasing and marketing professionals, attorneys, accountants, etc.

The number of Professional Members will be limited to 20% of total Association Membership. Applications are subject to approval by the Membership Committee and the Board of Directors.

The Applicant's goals must be consistent with those of BOMA Greater Minneapolis, adhering to standards of professionalism and integrity.

Overall, Professional Members should represent a diverse spectrum of individuals and firms with an interest in the real estate industry.

Professional Members shall strive to provide products or services which improve the quality and efficiency of the commercial property industry, shall undertake to work with and through BOMA Greater Minneapolis to accomplish these ends and shall conduct their BOMA activities within the guidelines established from time-to-time by BOMA Greater Minneapolis.

Professional Members are eligible to vote and hold elective office, and are encouraged to participate on committees.

Professional Members are on a year to year basis with renewal at the initiation and discretion of BOMA Greater Minneapolis. BOMA Greater Minneapolis reserves the right to determine if any or all Professional Members shall be renewed on an annual basis. Current membership shall not constitute an ongoing or future right to future membership. Professional Members not renewing their membership within 60 days following their renewal date will be dropped from membership.

There may be some functions that will be for Regular Members only, which would be announced in advance.

If a Professional Member changes employment, request must be made in writing and approved by the Board of Directors to transfer the membership to another individual from the same firm, or to the member's new firm.

Direct selling, soliciting of business or distribution of sales materials at Association functions by Professional Members is prohibited. Complaint of violation may be grounds for termination/non-renewal of membership privileges.
